

PRESS RELEASE

5/6/20

Aquinas Catholic Schools is pleased to announce that after an extensive application process Mrs. Angela Koblitz has been selected as the new principal for St. Patrick Elementary School. Angela will work with Mrs. Amble to ensure a smooth transition in leadership and will officially start as principal on July 1, 2020.

Mr. Ted Knutson, President of Aquinas Catholic Schools, stated, "I wish to thank Mrs. Amble for her leadership over the last few years at St. Patrick Elementary School. Mrs. Koblitz is a true servant leader and an advocate for children."

Mrs. Koblitz has been a teacher at St. Patrick Elementary School since 1996 where she has experience teaching Preschool – 2nd grade. Angela has also worked closely with the other two elementary schools within the Aquinas School System, Cathedral Elementary School and Blessed Sacrament Elementary School. Angela received her Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education with a minor in Early Childhood Education from Viterbo University and her Masters in Educational Leadership and Principal's Licensure from Viterbo University.

Mrs. Koblitz is committed to ensuring that all students learn to their maximum potential and to fostering innovation through collaboration with teachers, staff, students, and families. She is familiar with the traditions and successful practices at St. Patrick Elementary School and can't wait to get started in her new role.

Angela lives in Holmen, WI with her husband Scott. Not only is Angela an alumna of Aquinas Catholic Schools '92, but her two children also went through the Aquinas system, Zack ('18) and Zoey ('20). Angela also is an active member of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish in Holmen, WI.

Please join Aquinas Catholic Schools in congratulating Mrs. Koblitz upon her selection as the next Principal at St. Patrick Elementary School in Onalaska.
