The Blugold Volleyball Camp provides an opportunity for girls (incoming) grades 5 – 8 to work with the Aquinas High School coaching staff and players. Camp will focus on teamwork and skill development, but each age group will have a specific focus:

Grades 5 and 6: The focus in this age group will be to introduce basic volleyball skills and give them an opportunity to play. This group will work with ball control drills that allow them to have a bit of a competitive environment, but are also a lot of fun!

Grades 7 and 8: This age group will be focusing on the finer points of the game including competitive and cooperative play, offensive and defensive strategies, and the value of serve/pass. Lots of fun will be had!

COACH DANI SCHAMBERGER

Coach Dani Schamberger is entering her third year as head coach of Aquinas volleyball. Throughout her career as head coach, she has led the Blugolds to an MVC Championship, 2 Regional Championships, a Sectional Championship and to the WIAA Division 3 State Championship game. Coach Dani coached at the JV level for the two years before taking over the program in 2024. Coach Dani graduated from Aquinas in 2017 and played for Aquinas throughout her high school career. Coach also played 2 years of collegiate volleyball at St. Norbert College, as well as coached freshman at Ashwaubenon High School.

Coach Dani is excited to welcome the future of Aquinas volleyball for an all skills camp. This camp will provide all around skills in a fun and energetic environment. Coach believes in a positive and encouraging environment to build not only volleyball skills, but good sportsmanship.
